

Alcester Court Leet Flich Trial

Based on a 14th century tradition three couples are tried by a judge and jury to determine which one has had the most harmonious marriage for the last year and a day.

The winning couple are awarded a flich (or side) of bacon!

PLEASE JOIN IN AND HELP US TO FILL THE PUBLIC GALLERY
ALCESTER TOWN HALL
Saturday 23rd February
at 7.30
Admission £8

TICKETS AVAILABLE FROM :

Stephen Godfrey, 6 Georgian Close, Alcester
(Tel 01789 765536 email sgodfrey@freeola.com)
and HCB Solicitors, 35 HIGH STREET, ALCESTER

ALL PROCEEDS TO THE HIGH BAILIFF'S CHARITIES LICENSED BAR

Sponsors:

